

The Neewollah Marching Band Festival held October 29, 2011 at Independence, Kansas is being professionally videotaped by McHugh Video Productions.

*The entire competition, from the opening announcements to the presentation of the awards, will be recorded with multiple cameras with both wide shots and close-ups of each band to give you a memorable record of the day's events. Several microphones will be on the field to capture those critical audio requirements. Single Band DVD's will be made of your selected band only. There is also an optional *All Band DVD of all the edited bands available too.

Don't miss a minute of this excitement, just order a DVD and have those memories forever. Please don't hesitate to ask your band director or former clients for a referral. DVD's of the competition are available for purchase by filling in the form below and returning it, with payment, to our studio.
